In Memoriam

Angela Ann Mongiovi

"Whom the gods love die young," was said of yore,
And many deaths do they escape by this
The death of friendship, love, youth, all that is,
Except mere breath."

Lord Byron

May I express the wishes of the faculty and myself for a long life of success, happiness and good health for each of you.

The world you are entering is a good world, an exciting world, a world full of beauty and warmth, of good books and good friends, of interesting people and exciting opportunities.

You can find all of these things. Don't settle for less.

Class Advisers

Eunice Liberson

We, the Graduating Class of June 1960, express our sincere appreciation and deepest gratitude to Mrs. Liberson and Mr. McNiel, our class advisers. Due to their understanding, hard work and patience, our senior year has been a very rewarding and memorable one.

We owe to Mrs. Liberson and Mr. McNiel a debt of gratitude that we can never pay. To say "Thank You" seems so inadequate, but we mean it very sincerely.

Thank you, Mrs. Liberson and Mr. McNiel.

Kenneth McNiel

Class Counselor

We thank you wholeheartedly for your able and conscientious guidance and understanding during our three years here at West Side. Without your help throughout this time some of us would not have succeeded in graduating.

Alma Mater

In morn - ing light and eve - ning fall, Through all the days of com - ing years In times when glow - ing fu - tures call In hearts with laugh - ter and with tears Our love for you will nev - er die. Oh, Al - ma Ma - ter West Side High Our love for you will nev - er die Oh Al - ma Ma - ter West Side High.

In morning light and evening fall,
 Through all the days of coming years —
 In times when glowing futures call —
 In hearts with laughter and with tears
 Our love for you will never die,
 Oh, Alma Mater, West Side High.
 Our love for you will never die,
 Oh, Alma Mater, West Side High.

This love we have for you has grown
 More bright than any treasured gold,
 It deepens through each friend we've known.
 Each truth that to our hearts is told
 Within the shelter of your walls,
 Within the rooms where wisdom calls.
 Our love for you will never die,
 Oh, Alma Mater, West Side High.

Though we have need to wander far,
 Close in our hearts your name will be.
 Your goodness, like a radiant star,
 Will rise with every memory,
 And having these sweet dreams of you,
 We shall remember and be true.
 Our love for you will never die,
 Oh, Alma Mater, West Side High.

In morning light and evening fall,
 Through all the days of coming years,
 In times when glowing futures call,
 In hearts with laughter and with tears,
 Our love for you will never die,
 Oh, Alma Mater, West Side High!
 Our love for you will never die,
 Oh, Alma Mater, West Side High!
